

UPCOMING PUBLIC MEETINGS

Public Meeting for Queens Quay Environmental Assessment

Come be a part of revitalizing Queens Quay...

As part of the revitalization of Toronto's central waterfront, Waterfront Toronto in partnership with the City of Toronto, is undertaking an environmental assessment study of Queens Quay between Lower Spadina Avenue and Lower Jarvis Street. This study is exploring how to implement long standing City policy objectives including revitalizing Queens Quay into a scenic waterfront drive and completing the Martin Goodman Trail which today is absent through the central waterfront.

The first public forum will introduce existing site conditions, the problem statement, explore potential planning solutions and provide a recommended planning solution which will be the basis of design alternatives to be studied in more detail in the next phase of the environmental assessment.

We are interested in hearing your views and want to keep you informed about this project. Please join us for the first public forum.

Public Exhibition on the East Bayfront-West Precinct

Waterfront Toronto would like to invite you to a Public Exhibition on the East Bayfront-West Precinct being held on January 14, 2008. The implementation of the East Bayfront vision is moving forward and a number of exciting projects are already underway and we are pleased to advise that more will be in the near future. The purpose of the meeting is to provide an update on the work Waterfront Toronto is doing in the East Bayfront. We will be focusing on:

- Draft Plan for Phase I Development
- Sherbourne Park
- East Bayfront Public Realm Design including the Water's Edge Promenade
- Jarvis Slip Open Space Design Competition
- Queens Quay Revitalization Environmental Assessment
- East Bayfront Transit Environmental Assessment
- First Waterfront Place

Members of the project team will be on hand to guide you through the exhibits, answer questions and share ideas. The meeting details are as follows:

Monday, January 14, 2008
6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.
