

wish you were here

you're invited to our new blue edge

Please join Waterfront Toronto and our government partners to celebrate a major milestone in the development of our waterfront — the official opening of Canada's Sugar Beach and the Water's Edge Promenade (phase one).

Helping us open these beautiful new public spaces will be Federal Minister of Finance Jim Flaherty, Ontario Minister of Energy and Infrastructure Brad Duguid and Toronto Mayor David Miller.

Canada's Sugar Beach is a playful park with bright pink beach umbrellas, candy-stripped rocks and a granite mosaic promenade that leads visitors to the new Water's Edge Promenade along Lake Ontario.

Date: Monday, August 9th

Time: 10:30am – 11:30am

Location: Canada's Sugar Beach (south side of Queens Quay, just east of Lower Jarvis St.)

Transit: Take the 6 Bay bus (from Union Station to Lower Jarvis St. and Queens Quay)

Parking: Paid parking is available at Loblaws in the Target Park lot (enter from Queens Quay, west of Lower Jarvis St.)

For information, contact Hanna Rynkiewicz at 416-214-1344 ext. 276.

Waterfront Toronto is the public advocate and steward of waterfront revitalization. The city, provincial and federal governments created Waterfront Toronto to oversee, lead and implement the revitalization of our waterfront. www.waterfronttoronto.ca
